

The Current Girl Scout Law

Every member of Girl Scouting shares the Girl Scout Law. The Girl Scout Law outlines a way to act towards one another and the world.

The Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring, courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do, and to respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place, and be a sister to every Girl Scout.

The illustrations and text of this booklet are the works of Bess Bruce Cleaveland (Jun 13, 1876 – Oct 6, 1966). She was a master of "normal" art and believed in "art for children's sake". She illustrated books, teacher's magazines, and other commercial art projects. These posters were first published in 1924 & 1925 and are used by permission.

I. A Girl Scout's Honor is to be Trusted

This means that a Girl Scout's standards of honor are so high and sure that no one would dream of doubting her simple statement of a fact when she says: "This is so, on my honor as a Girl Scout."

X. A Girl Scout is Clean in Thought, Word, and Deed

This means that just as she stands for a clean, healthy community and a clean, healthy home, so every Girl Scout knows the deep and vital need for clean and healthy bodies in the mothers of the next generation.

III. A Girl Scout's Duty is to be Useful and to Help Others

This means that if it is a question of being a help to the rest of the world, or a burden on it, a Girl Scout is always to be found among the helpers.

VIII. A Girl Scout is Cheerful

This means that no matter how courteous or obedient or helpful you try to be, if you are sad or depressed about it nobody will thank you very much for your effort.
